IMPORTANT PLEASE READ

- 1) Please ensure we have entry to your venue at the time arranged. If the hirer does not show and we need to return to a venue, you will be charged extra for delivery.
- 2) The hirer or a representative must be there to receive the Jukebox so we can set it up where you would prefer it to be placed at the venue and go over the operating instructions of how to use the machine if needed.
- 3) Never move a CD playing Jukebox once it has been set up. Never move a digital without prior permission from Video Tech Staff. The Jukebox must be the only machine run off any one power point, other appliances may cause problems.
- 4) If a problem occurs on the night of hire, please contact our on-call technicians straight away so the problem can be solved on the night. If contact is not made to Video Tech technicians via our phone number 03 477 6541 when a problem occurs, then we cannot refund any part of the hire cost.

The Jukebox is on castor wheels and must travel on a solid surface. If there is grass, gravel, or any stairs, please let us know in plenty of time so we can arrange another staff member to help.

- Private homes may need to be checked before we accept a booking to make sure the Jukebox will fit into the venue.
- Marquees are also suitable provided the Jukebox is sitting on a flat dry surface and must be sheltered from the direct sunlight and rain from the delivery time to the pick-up time.
- All CD playing jukeboxes are programmed with 51 albums, you choose the jukebox that suits you the best and you can make as many changes as you like from the library selection.
- The digital jukebox has over 2000 songs on it, you cannot change or add to the playlist, but the 2000 songs give a very wide range of music to suit everybody's tastes.
- If you have booked a digital jukebox please note, Video Tech staff will select which one goes to your venue. The all have the same music, but some are easier to get into some venues.

Have a great night and please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any queries regarding your Jukebox.
